

Temple Independent Methodist Church

is currently looking for a Pastor

We are located at 171 Watkins Court in Spartanburg, South Carolina, just below the North Carolina state line, in the Piedmont area.

The goal of our church is the salvation of souls through the preaching of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ and to further instruct Christians through the teaching of the Word of God.

We believe that we can best worship and serve by being an independent church with a congregational form of church government. Our members come from various church backgrounds, however our beliefs are rooted in the Wesleyan-Armenian interpretation of the Bible. Our former pastors have been Wesleyan, Church of Christ in Christian Union, and Evangelical Methodist.

Our current attendance averages 60 people on Sunday mornings. We have Wednesday evening supper and then Bible Study, youth service, and kids program. There is an average of 30-40 on Wednesday nights.

We provide a parsonage, located 10 minutes from the church. It has 3-4 bedrooms, 2 baths, and has just been fully renovated inside and out. We furnish the utilities (power and water).

We are looking for leadership in a Pastor, one who will allow God to inspire him to preach what is needed for our congregation and someone who has a heart for building relationships with all ages. The salary will be commensurate with experience. Along with a salary, the parsonage, and utilities, we offer a matching retirement of up to 3%.

Our current congregation is interested in numerical and spiritual growth. Temple is a very friendly, loving, church family, who welcomes any and all, who wish to worship and serve the Lord with us.
