

JOB DESCRIPTION FOR SR. PASTOR IN HOMER, LA

Cornerstone Church of Homer is seeking a Pastor who can grow the church's ministry and attract more worshippers. Located in downtown Homer, LA the church has been a part of this community since 1849. The church is transitioning from a United Methodist Church to a non-denominational church and is welcoming new members. The Pastor's compensation plan includes base pay, a newly renovated parsonage two miles from the church across the street from Homer Elementary School, health insurance, travel and contribution to pension plan as needed by applicant. If interested, email Theresa Huff at thuff@cchomer.com. At that time an application packet will be sent out to the applicant.

The pastor will preach and conduct worship services that include weekly sermons that capture the essence of the biblical vision. They will need to understand the challenges of sharing the gospel. They need to be able to engage and welcome visitors to the church. They will need to provide training opportunities to the congregation for outreach and evangelism.
