

The South Central District of the Churches of Christ in Christian Union is seeking immediate candidates for the position of pastor for our local church in Bell, Florida.

This congregation, known locally as *Foundations Church 1:29 is seeking a shepherd/leader to help them move forward in their mission to reach the community of Gilchrist County with the gospel of Christ. The congregation of 40 has been successfully building over the past two years with excellent pastoral leadership and support from the district and denomination. This is a local church with tremendous potential for growth.

This is a bi-vocational ministry assignment, with a beautiful 3-bedroom parsonage offered as part of the compensation package. Bell is a rural community located in north central Florida, less than an hour west of Gainesville. The church worships in a modern sanctuary with an attached fellowship hall and is an attractive setting for growing ministry.

Potential candidates must demonstrate Wesleyan-Arminian doctrinal alignment with the Churches of Christ in Christian Union and must possess credentials in good standing with their denomination/church body. Interested individuals should contact Rev. Gary Heimbach, district superintendent at southcentralsds@cccuhq.org or (740) 357-0453. To learn more about the Churches of Christ in Christian Union, please visit cccuhq.org.

*the name of this local church derives from John 1:29, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world!", and the church's location on South US Highway 129.

The mission of the Churches of Christ in Christian Union is to preach and teach the gospel of Christ for the purpose of:

- World Evangelization
- Discipling Believers
- Promoting Scriptural Holiness
- Establishing Churches and Ministries which reflect the spirit and practice of the New Testament Church