

“Serve Your Country, While Serving Your Faith” – US NAVY CHAPLAINCY

- Two Career Options: Active Duty (Full-time) and US Navy Reserve (Part-Time: 1 weekend/month, 2 weeks/year)
- Benefits: Both career options offer competitive pay and full health benefits for service member and dependents (family members)
- Eligibility Requirements (Same for both career options): Less than 57-yrs old, completed MDiv degree, 2 years professional ministry experience, ordained by DoD Ecclesiastical Endorser, and medically qualified to serve in arduous environment world-wide (deployable)
- Point of Contact for more information: LT JEREMY SWEETEN, US Navy Chaplain and Program Officer
(Jeremy.e.sweeten.mil@us.navy.mil / 717-519-9258)
- !!ATTN SEMINARY STUDENTS!! – The US NAVY also offers a CHAPLAINCY CANDIDATE PROGRAM for full-time students working on their MDiv degree. Contact LT SWEETEN for more information.

Most notable opportunity is that last line for SEMINARY STUDENTS. The Chaplain Candidate Program is an incredible opportunity for students to get paid to experience military life and chaplaincy while students with NO commitment or obligation to serve!!
