

Batesville First Methodist, a Global Methodist Church, is seeking a full-time Minister of Youth or an Associate Pastor of Families for the right candidate. We are a historic, county seat church with an average worship of around 275 between two Sunday morning services.

The youth ministry has an active team of adults currently leading and can have up to 45 youth on a Wednesday night. There are lots of opportunity for growth in both the youth ministry and the entire church.

Salary is competitive with a real desire from the church to bless their staff.

Position requirements:

A sense of calling into the ministry.

Strong relational skills.

The ability to lead others and be a team player with staff.

Bachelor's degree desired with Seminary being a plus.
