

Associate Minister to Youth and More at Russellville First Methodist Church

www.russellvillemethodist.org

Russellville First Methodist, a Global Methodist congregation in Russellville, Alabama, seeking a passionate, relational, and visionary leader to join our team as the Associate Minister to Youth (Plus). This full-time role is all about making disciples of Jesus Christ, with a primary focus on youth ministry and the flexibility to shape part of the position around your unique strengths and gifts.

What You'll Do:

- Lead and grow a vibrant youth ministry that reaches beyond our church walls into the community.
- Equip and support parents, volunteers, and students in their faith journeys.
- Build meaningful relationships with local schools, organizations, and other ministry leaders.
- Take on general ministerial duties and help shape new ministry initiatives based on your talents—whether that's missions, technology, worship, or something else!

Who We're Looking For:

- Someone with a clear and growing faith in Jesus Christ.
- A team player who's self-motivated and eager to build something impactful.
- A strong communicator who loves connecting with youth, families, and the wider community.
- At least a bachelor's degree (any field), with ministry training preferred.

If you're ready to make a difference in Russellville and beyond, and want to be part of a church that exists to love and serve others so that our community is transformed by Christ, we'd love to hear from you!
